

WARMADEWA UNIVERSITY

Course Syllabus

Indonesian Language – WIP41B01

International Program

6 ECTS

1. Course Description

This course discusses the knowledge about basic Indonesian language such as greeting, number, days, date, months, year, direction, the characteristic of animate and inanimate, and simple sentence (positive, negative, interrogative, interjection sentence). Besides, they are challenged to play crossword, tic-tac-toe, and singing. The purpose is to make the students able to use simple Indonesian language for communicating with local people while they are living in Indonesia.

2. Objectives

By the end of this course, students should be able:

- 1) To use greeting and introduction their selves and their family in Indonesian language.
- 2) To understand how to express time, days, date, months, and year in Indonesian language.
- 3) To understand how to explain direction in Indonesian language.
- 4) To comprehend noun, adjective, and verb of Indonesian language.
- 5) To sing some Indonesian popular songs.
- 6) To understand how to make simple Indonesian language and to use it for communicating with local people while they are living in Indonesia, playing crossword, and tic-tac-toe.

3. Lecturing Method

The course will use lecturing, discussion, and assignment method.

4. Assessment Method

Class attendance 10 %, Class participation and assignments 30 %, Mid-term exam 30 %, Final exam 30 %

5. Lecturers

Team

6. Lecture Topics

Week	Topics
1.	Greeting
2.	Introduction
3.	Family tree
4.	Time, date, days, months, year
5.	Animate and inanimate objects (noun)
6.	Characteristics of animate and inanimate objects (adjective)
7.	Demonstrative, preposition, and direction
8.	Middle test
9.	Verbs
10.	Characteristics of human and things.
11.	Indonesian popular songs.
12.	Simple Indonesian sentences.
14.	Crossword
15.	Tic-tac-toe
16.	Final test

