International Program

CROSS-CULTURAL COMMUNICATION

5 ECTS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides the students with knowledge about cultures in contact with societies characterized by cultural plurality, which makes cross-cultural communication unavoidable. While cultural plurality is potential to trigger conflicting forces such as cross-cultural misunderstanding due to conflicting personal needs, ethnocentrism, and chauvinism between people of different socio-cultural backgrounds. The realization that there is a universal human need for peace and prosperity in life could be treated as an asset from which necessary learning and efforts could be derived towards establishing cross-cultural harmony under the ideology of multiculturalism.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

After completing this course the students will have (1) the necessary knowledge of cultural pluralism, multiculturalism and cross-cultural communication with all its conflicting and harmonizing forces, and (2) the necessary ability to solve cross-cultural misunderstanding as the source of cross-cultural conflicts towards establishing cross-cultural harmony for peace and prosperity in life.

LEARNING METHODS

The course will be presented in the form of lecture activities, classroom assignments and discussion, homework and examinations.

ASSESSMENT METHODS

Assignments and discussion 30%
Middle Semester Test 30%
Final Semester Test 40%
